

advertise	to make something known generally or in public, especially in order to sell it almanac	a reference book that gives information about a topic in a certain year antonym	a word that means the opposite of another word bibliography	the written list of all the sources used in a report or book cause and effect	is a text structure that writers use to explain how or why one thing leads to another. The cause is the reason that an action or reaction takes place. The effect is the result or consequence of the cause.
characteristics	distinguishing traits, qualities, or properties classify	to sort into groups based on similarities and differences conclusion	the end or close; final part. conflict	the problem or problems characters face in a literary work definition	a clear explanation of the meaning of a word or phrase describe	to speak or write about in detail; to picture with words encyclopedia	a set of books containing articles on various topics covering all branches of knowledge fiction	a literary work that is made up; created in someone's mind; not based entirely on truth genre	type or category of literary work (e.g., poetry, essay, short story, novel, drama) glossary	A list of difficult or specialized words with their definitions, often placed at the back of a book. historical fiction	real events, places, or people are incorporated into a fictional or imaginative story instructions	steps or rules to follow invitation	a request for someone to be present at a special event or to celebrate an occasion legend	A narrative handed down from the past, containing historical elements and usually supernatural elements magazine	A periodical containing a collection of articles, stories, pictures, or other features.

manual	a handbook; a book of directions mood	the feeling created in a reader by a literary work or passage moral	the lesson a story teaches multisyllabic	Having more than one syllable, Having more than one syllable order of events	things that happened arranged by when they occurred phrase	a group of words that does not have both a subject and a verb play	a literary work written for performance on the stage; a drama plot	the sequence of events in a story poet	a person who writes poetry poetry	imaginative writing in which language, images, sound, and rhythm combine to create a special emotional effect point of view	the perspective from which a story is told predict	To state what you think will happen under certain conditions based on what you know from observations or research reference book	a book of facts, for example: atlas, encyclopedia, dictionary resource	anything that can help you source	a book, article, person, or other resource consulted for information summarize	to tell or write a story in you own words. Usually much shorter than the original text text	a written work; the main part of a piece of writing theme	The main idea or meaning of a text. Often, this is an insight about human life revealed in a literary work thesaurus	a dictionary of synonyms and antonyms topic sentence	A sentence that states the topic of its paragraph

---

Venn diagram

A diagram that uses circles to display elements of different sets. Overlapping circles show common elements.

---